Welcome to The George and Dragon, a peaceful country pub tucked away in the heart of the Sussex countryside a place where time slows down, memories are cherished, and comfort is found in good company. Our lovingly restored 16th-century pub offers a gentle and welcoming setting to gather, remember, and celebrate the life of someone special. Whether you're sharing stories by the fire, raising a glass in the garden, or simply sitting together in quiet reflection, our home becomes yours for the day.

Inside the restaurant, vaulted ceilings, soft light, and views across the garden create a calm and comforting atmosphere. Doors open onto a private patio, offering a peaceful space to pause and reflect.

Every celebration of life is unique, and we're here to help you create a fitting tribute whether that's a traditional buffet, or a simple gathering of friends and family. Our team will take care of every detail with warmth, understanding, and respect, so you can focus on what truly matters: remembering, sharing, and celebrating a life well lived.
